Thank you for your interest in joining Zen Community of Oregon!

Zen Community of Oregon is a non-profit 501(c)3 corporation. Your contributions are tax deductible and an accounting is available as needed.

Benefits of Membership

- Discount on sesshin and workshops; may attend sesshin on a part time basis
- Borrowing privileges at the Heart of Wisdom Zen Temple library
- Access to Heart of Wisdom meditation hall during open times, and reduced rates on building rentals
- Voting rights at the annual meeting and other times, after one year of membership
- Eligibility to serve on the board after three years of membership
- Sanzen (private interview with Teachers)

To become a member, you need an account on zendust.org. Once you have set up your account, fill out this application and email it to membership@zendust.org

Choose your membership

- A Red Cedar Member pledges $100 per month or more. This member invests in the long-term development of Zen Community of Oregon.
- A Sitka Spruce Member pledges $75 per month. Pledging at this level helps ZCO keep the fees for retreats, work shops, and other events low, and to continue providing classes free of charge.
- A Mountain Maple Member pledges $50 per month. This is the basic ZCO membership; this level keeps our facilities open and helps support the teachers, priests, and other essential staff.
- A Shore Pine Member pledges $35 per month. This membership helps cover basic expenses such as mortgage, utilities, mailing costs, and general supplies.
- A White Oak Member pledges $25 per month. This category is primarily for people who live too far away to participate on a regular basis but want to support ZCO.
- A Noble Fir Member pledges what they can afford. Lack of funds should never stand in the way of joining the ZCO community. Please email to Membership (membership@zendust.org) and offer what you can.
